NeoCon East Switches Dates from December to October

by Staff | Friday, August 13, 2010

Yes, we're experiencing déjà vu, too. NeoCon East has new dates—again.

The federal design-focused off-shoot of its parent show in Chicago, which was traditionally held the final few days of October, was moved to December 2010 earlier this year. The show's hosts, Merchandise Mart Properties, announced yesterday that the show has been rescheduled and will take place Oct. 28-29, 2010 at the Baltimore Convention Center.

"The Baltimore Convention Center recently informed us of a date opening in their October calendar and we quickly acted on the opportunity to accept the new dates," said Mark Falanga, senior vice president of MMPI, contract. "At MMPI we are fully committed to NeoCon East, its exhibitors and attendees, and feel the October dates will help to best benefit those on the GSA schedule."

With more than 7,500 attendees and 250 exhibitors expected, showgoers can look forward to thousands of displayed products on the GSA schedule, CEU accredited seminars, and the opportunity to learn more about GSA and how to get involved in government projects with:

- Free 60-minute seminars for government employees
- Free GSA-sponsored seminars
- The largest concentration of products and services for commercial interiors on the GSA schedule, making NeoCon East the most cost-effective method for attendees to source products for interior design projects
- Networking opportunities with design and facilities professionals from both the federal government and public sectors
- A GSA Integrated Workplace Acquisition Center booth on the show floor to assist attendees with the federal government
